My happiest childhood memories were spent with my prescious cousin -Darlene. We were both born in January just a few weeks apart. We shared lots of things together-like chicken pox,measles, boyfriends! She was full of fun and laughter.Recently my husband and I were passing thru on our way back to Texas and stopped to see her at work-she ran around the counter and started introducing me to everyone-saying this is my cousin Rachel-we shared everything growing up...she was still full of life and laughter! She loved her grandkids and her family. I will miss her from now on til my dying day. She was a dear friend and one of my favorite cousins. My heart goes out to her husband and her prescious girls and those sweet grandbabies. Also her sweet mother. Sam and I love ya'll and you will be in our prayers in the coming days.,
