“ Paula, I was so distressed and shocked to learn of Alan's passing. Alan was such a special man, and I am constantly remembering so many good times that we all had together. Please know that my prayers are with you and Amy. Alan just went home a little before the rest of us. Even though we cognitively realize this fact, hearts still ache and will ache for some time. God be with you 'til you meet again.

Paula, I will sincerely pray for you and your family during this most difficult time.
