

Amos Watkins,

May 15, 1922 - July 23, 2014

Amos Watkins, Sr., 92, passed away July 23, 2014 at Mississippi Baptist Medical Center in Jackson. A Visitation will be 1pm-3pm Saturday at Springs of Praise. A Services will be 3pm Saturday at Springs of Praise with burial at Crystal Springs Cemetery. A Stringer Family Funeral Services in Crystal Springs is handling arrangements. A Mr. Watkins was a native of Kemper County. A He moved to Crystal Springs with his family during early childhood. A He graduated from Gallman High School where he played basketball. A He attended Hinds and Copiah Lincoln Jr. Colleges. A Mr. Watkins served in the US Navy for 6 years during WWII. A Following services in the Navy he returned to Crystal Springs. A Mr. Watkins was in the plumbing business and later was in the furniture and appliance business for 50 years. A Mr. Watkins was recognized by the Crystal Springs Chamber of Commerce for serving over 50 years in Business in Crystal Springs. A He was a lifetime active member and deacon of the Springs of Praise Church of Crystal Springs. A He was preceded in death a daughter, Amy Watkins McMillan and his first wife, Mayme Jackson Watkins. A He is survived by wife, Glenna Gaddy Watkins of Crystal Springs; sons, Amos Stephens Watkins, Jr. of Quitman and Clinton Wilson Watkins of Brentwood, TN; daughter, Bonnie Watkins May of Jonesboro, Arkansas; step-sons, Jerry and Keith Gaddy all of Crystal Springs; 16 grandchildren; and 17 great grandchildren.,

Tribute Wall

“ Amos Watkins,

---

January 28, 2023 at 04:45 PM

“ i remember mr. watkins when i was growing up in crystal springs. i love his furniture store. such a sweet and gentle soul. my prayers are with his family and friends. so sorry to hear he had passed away. god bless,

---

florria broocks - April 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM