“ So sorry to hear about Annie. I graduated from High School with her and had recently became FB friends. She came to see a family member graduate at Mendenhall, and she took the time to come on the field after the ceremony to see me, a long time Senior Sponsor. I was so happy to see her. She was always the sweetest, kindest girl in our class. From the wonderful tributes I have seen, she was a shining Christian example to all 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ Many times Mimi has spoken into my life, but the one which stands out most is the time i had a mini vision about being a strong tree, one that gives shade, rest, home for critters, fruits and nuts, i Had told no one and the next service, she gave me a small framed mirror of a big tree painted on it. She said the Lord had told her I was a tree and began to name off the same things I saw in this little vision.
