

Beverly Wilson

August 30, 1945 - September 22, 2025

Beverly Jean Hailey Wilson was born in Jackson, MS on August 30, 1945. She passed away on Sept.22, 2025. She had a twin brother named Wallace R. Hailey Jr. Her parents were Mary Kate Taylor and Wallace R. Hailey. As a child she showed an interest in art and did well in high school and college classes. Two lovely paintings of horses were displayed in her home and her grandmother, Frankene Taylor's home. Around 13 she began to love horses and promised herself she would get one someday.

After college, she moved from Texas to Crystal Springs, to live with her grandmother. She married Joe Wilson and as an adult she realized her dream and bought her first horse. The horses to follow were greatly loved and expertly cared for. She worked in the shirt factory, cared for her home, her dogs, her horses and her husband. She was a loving sister as well.

She was preceded in death by her twin brother "Bob", and her mother and father. Her living siblings are Celeste St. Marie, and Dee Ann Creed. Her nieces and nephews are Carrie Hailey Collinsworth, Jason St. Marie, Phoebe St. Marie Whitney, and Brandon Creed.

A graveside service will be 11am Saturday, October 4, 2025, at Old Crystal Springs Cemetery.
