“ Billy Frank was a long time friend of my late husband Mac Lowery. They played football together and graduated from High School at Co-Lin Agriculture High School in Wesson. He was well liked and always was a likeable friend and person. I personally did not know him but I knew that my husband thought a lot of him growing up as close friends. Prayers for the family.

Prayers for the family of Mr. Billy Frank. My grandparents were neighbors to them when they lived on Lake Street before they moved to the country and I spent some of my childhood with them and I remember him and his family fondly. RIP May the family find comfort “ Billy was a kind hearted generous man. He did more good for more folks than anyone knows. I hope his beloved children know what a loving dad they were blessed with. Rest in peace Billy.
