“ Gail was a colorful character. I will always miss her and the good times we had, all the laughs, her decorating my Christmas tree and all that good cooking. Nothing in life every prepares us to lose someone we love, but I know life will go on. She loved her son and grandchildren dearly as well as her dog Trudy. People have been so kind to ask us how we are doing and how much they thought of Brenda Gail. Please continue to keep us in prayer as we adjust to a life with her not in it.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I loved Brenda. She always told you the truth, would do anything for you and would always be there if you needed her. I respected her honesty and she was always herself. We always had fun together and would laugh and giggle at the silliest of things.
