“ My sincere condolences to Scott and Tracy and all of their family...I am so sorry for your loss...My heart is so burdened for you all...I know I only met Candace a few times but I remember how sweet she was.... She had grown into a beautiful young lady...I feel I got to know her even more by being her friend on facebook...I loved watching her share her love for her horses...Her love for her family and friends...My prayer for your family is that God, in His wisdom, will speak peace to each ones heart that she left behind and will give you all comfort in knowing that you will see her again...God bless each and every one of you...,
