

Carolyn Hughes Addy

March 16, 1945 - July 26, 2024

Carolyn Hughes Addy, 79, of Crystal Springs, passed away with her three daughters and lots of loving staff by her side at Copiah Living Center on July 26.

Carolyn was born on March 16, 1945 in Harrisville, Ms to Joe and Irma Hughes, completing their five children. After graduating from Harrisville High as Valedictorian of her class in 1963, she began a career in the business office at Mississippi State Hospital. Carolyn soon met Daniel Addy and married in 1964, then started their family in Crystal Springs. Before his untimely death in 1998, the Addy's had their hands in almost every type of business they could imagine; mainly in Copiah County, but also Terry and Brookhaven.

Carolyn chose to live the last six years in assisted living and made some amazing friends as well as another family. Copiah Living Center will always be a special place for her surviving daughters Vonda Addy, Pam Addy Erwin (Malcolm), Andrea Addy Westbrook (Conrad); grandchildren Justin Goodman (Sarah), Stephanie Goodman, Keith Steen, Abby Harrison, Grace Steen, Chris Harrison; great grandchildren Ryleigh Jeffreys, Braxton Walls, Lynlee Rushing; special family friend Gerald Kelly; numerous nieces and nephews; in-laws David Addy, Dewilla Addy Graham.

She was preceded in her death by her parents, Joe Hughes and Irma Herrington Hughes; her loving husband of 33 years, Daniel Addy; her siblings, Burnell Hughes, Lonnie Hughes, Ina Hughes Bridges, and Billie Hughes Sandifer.

Pallbearers are Gerald Kelly, Justin Goodman, Michael Box, Malcolm Erwin, Jr, Keith Steen and Chris Harrison

“ I am so sorry to hear this about Carolyn. If she was in the same class as my sister at Harrisville, plus I lived in Crystal Springs and she always was at my house to sell Avon. She was such a sweet person and I am so sorry for your loss. God bless.
