“ I remember when Robert, Carolyn, Wayne and I went to a play in Brookhaven a couple years ago. It was a Southern play and they played music from our years as teens. Carolyn and I got really into the music and she was clapping, laughing and bobbing her head to the beat. It was so much fun seeing her so happy and obviously making a connection to the music and the memory. Carolyn always had a smile and was so quick to break out into a laugh! I'm sure Momma is showing her around Heaven right about now. Carolyn is a sweet spirit with a heart of gold.

“ I will always love the way she smiled, it was one that made the sunshine. I moved away in 1982, but when I came back to Mississippi, I saw Carolyn and that smile that I remembered when we were in school was the same. She will always be sunshine.
