“ We were deeply saddened to learn of Charlotte's death last week. What a shock! I knew her to be very friendly, thoughtful, had a great dry wit, wonderful memory, and was very attentive to my mother. I remember well the day Charlotte came down the hall of Pine Crest with homegrown tomatoes, and Annie Laura was beside her with sandwich "fixins" for the residents. What a treat!!

During her stay at Pine Crest, the bingo/coffee group wanted to go to bingo just to hear what Charlotte had to say. Nothing else was important! She was a bright spot for all of us, and she'll surely be missed.

*Love,
