“ My whole childhood is of Danny....him and my dad were Best Friends....i remember camping out with him and his kids...one time him and my dad had a flat tire so he they were rummaging thru his trunk to change it...he found a toy gun of Chads so he pointed it at my dad and my dad raised his hands...a passerby called the police because they thought my dad was being robbed!! Needless to say...the cops came and they all had a good laugh....Danny was a prankster... He was a good father....so many memories....I love you....may you rest in peace..
