“ So many memories of my Uncle David. When he heard that his brother (my father) was dying and wanted to see him, he got in his vehicle and drove up to Knoxville to see him. Only Uncle David was gutsy enough to be honest with Dad and tell him that he wouldn't see him again this side of Heaven. But they are together in Heaven now, with their parents and brothers and sisters. When he was leaving my Dad, Uncle David told him that when he saw Jesus, that he was to reach out to Him. Dad said he would. I am sure that is exactly what Uncle David did. So proud to call Uncle David my uncle.
