

David Nance,

December 11, 1951 - September 10, 2014

David A. Nance, 62, passed away September 10, 2014 at his residence. A Visitation will be 5pm-8pm Thursday at Stringer Family Funeral Home. A Services will be 2pm Friday at Stringer Family Chapel with burial at Hazlehurst Cemetery. A Stringer Family Funeral Home in Hazlehurst is handling arrangements. Mr. Nance had an outstanding personality and never met a stranger and really enjoyed woodworking. A Mr. Nance was the former president of Louisville College in Louisville, KY, former president of Rice College in Knoxville, TN, and had been an independent insurance adjuster since 1993. He is survived by his wife Debbie Slay Nance of Hazlehurst; brother, Jerry Logston of Mayfield, KY; sisters, Donna Clapp and Mayfield, KY and Susan Nance of Bell City, KY.,

Tribute Wall

“ David Nance,

January 28, 2023 at 04:45 PM

“ I am so sorry to hear this devastating news. I was out of college just a few years when Mr. Nance (I still have to call him that) hired me at the college in Louisville and later recommended me for a promotion in Florida. Thus, he played a big part in launching my career in that industry and for that I am ever grateful. Full of personality is an understatement. I can still hear him calling for his secretary Ruth outside his office and how much he loved his wife and his dog (I believe his name was Max) as he spoke of them often. I worked with Ruth at another college until last year and we still talked about him and laughed at those crazy times! My favorite David Nance quotes: "Your hair color matches your personality" I was a red head back then. I told him I took that as a compliment. We had disagreed on something and both of us tried to get the other to see our point of view (I lost of course). He later said I was the most argumentative person he knew. I think he enjoyed the banter. My sincere condolences to Debbie and the entire Nance family, he was one of a kind.,

Terri Thomas - April 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM

DM

“Debbie, I cannot begin to tell you how sorry I am for this HUGE LOSS. My memories of the two of you in Louisville are still among my best memories and while not joined by blood, we were joined by spirit and I came to look upon David as my brother. I loved stealing his boiled peanuts from his office, and pulling pranks- always bettered by David. Especially the one with the roses that back fired on you and him! And in comes Lloyd Priddy, member of the OUTLAWS gang and student. David was a wonderful, wonderful man and I guess God felt he had spread all of his goodness over this earth and it was time to retire with Max. I tried to call you but no phone listed & only have his email address. Love, Hugs, tons of prayers sent your way, Debbie. "Doc" as Dave called me, Fran between us. (863) 838-2433,

Dr. Fran Morris - April 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM

JW

“David, was one of most wonderful person anyone could come in contact with, if you didn't have a smile David would always have one for you. and his wife Deb was the same way I will truly miss him and but his great spirit will live on. Our prayers and love Deb is with you and the family.,

james williams - April 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM

MO

“A man who I, and many others, was proud to call friend. Always upbeat and never a negative word whatever the situation. There are no words to truly express the loss that we all feel. Our prayers and sympathy to Deb and all the others who will miss David. o To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die. Thomas Campbell,

Merlin Orr - April 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM