“ We your children, your grandchildren, great grandchildren, relatives, and friends love You Buscha (Grandma) with all our heart. You made our lives better. You made our lives fuller. We all learned so much from your example. You never gave up on life and never gave up on us. You always encouraged us to be better. God has taken you home. God surely has said to you, "Well done my good and faithful servant." "Come enter into my rest." (read Isaiah 57:2) Thank you for all the life lessons you have given us. we will use them and teach them to our children, and our children's children will remember you.,

“ To my mother who I love so deeply. Mother, I want you to know you gave me such happiness and joy. Thanks mom for all the wise counsel and concern you always had for me and in the ways you showed your love for me. I will always remember your smile...the way it looked like a rainbow to me. You were teaching me valuable lessons until the very moment you went home to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus. My faith has been mightily strengthened because of you. You are the example of what a mother should be. I rejoice you are home in heaven and that we will all be together again. Maranatha (Aramaic phrase meaning, "Come quickly Lord Jesus.") I love you so very much. Your son, James,

“ Mom, You were always there for me. In my youth, when I skinned my knee, when I got that bee sting, when I had deep wounds you were there to be my comforter. You always made me feel better when I was hurting inside. I always felt protected by your love. You gave me a safe environment for me to grow up in. I felt the love you poured out on me. You brought me up to know God. You did as God commanded in to bring up your children to know the Lord. I am forever eternally grateful. God has given you great rewards in heaven for doing the most important task of a mother with such great love. Enjoy all the rewards you earned because you truly sacrificed a lot for your children. I love you MOM! I will see you some day again. You are the best! Your son, Ken,
