“Pop” as Kaiser referred to him as, was a wonderful caring Great Grandfather who traveled up to St. Dominic’s, along with Mama ‘Nita when Kaiser was born and then placed in the NICU for two weeks. . They prayed and prayed and talked about sure hoping He’d be ok. He was a kind and gentle soul when it can to his family. I thank the Lord that we got to know Mr Ed and Mrs. Anita a little bit.. Genuine and caring for their family no matter what. Mr. Ed will be missed and our prayers are now with Mrs. Anita and the rest of the family as they deal with his loss. May God be glorified with every word that is spoken and every deed that is done to relieve this family during their time of sorrow.
