

Emmitt Edward "Ed" Wilson

September 26, 1941 - April 1, 2023

Emmitt Edward (Ed) Wilson, 81, was born September 26, 1941 at home in the small community of Coldwater, MS and passed away April 1, 2023 at Baptist Medical Center in Jackson. Visitation will be Monday, April 3, 2023 from 10am-11am at Stringer Family Funeral Home in Crystal Springs. Services will be 11am Monday at Stringer Family Chapel with burial at Hopewell Cemetery.

Mr. Wilson worked many different professions through his years but was very proud of his years with Capital Security for the State of Mississippi and his many years as a service technician with Kraft Food company.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Linda Gail Wilson whom he married on April 18, 1973. Together they blended their families and shared many happy memories during their 41 years together until her passing in 2020. They enjoyed being together, dancing at the American Legion, playing Bingo and raising together their family of eight children. They were active in the Crazy Eight CB club in the late 70's and had a radio room set up at home. His handle was "Double E". They enjoyed attending their regional events and conventions. He is also preceded in death by his parents, Emmitt Elder and Minnie Ray Wilson; sister, Byrlie Mae Ashe; brother, Tony Ray Wilson.

He is survived by Chuck Ainsworth, son (wife, Betty); Cheryl Katz, daughter (son in law, Howard), Tina Josey, daughter (husband, Rodney); Brenda Kirkland, daughter, (husband, Louis);Annette Loper, (husband, Tim); Michael Wilson, son (wife, Katie); Eric Wilson, (wife, Lisa); 23 Grandchildren and 25 Great Grandchildren.

Pallbearers are Ben Kirkland, Adam Kirkland, Isaac Cook, Bobby Rush, Corey Ainsworth and Kovi Katz.

Honorary pallbearers are Mickey Matthews, Brady Matthews, Dylan Wilson and Dakota Wilson.
