“ *What a wonderful friend Gerry is! My sons and I had the privilege of flying to OshKosh with him and his children. We always enjoyed that time spent together. Gerry was so supportive when our youngest son Tyler died. Now Gerry, Steve and Tyler are soaring in the heavens together, waiting for us to join them. Our love and prayers to Lisa and the children. “ Mrs. Mosley, I just wanted you to know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I can't imagine how difficult this must be for you, but I want you to know that you are one of the strongest women I have ever met. You are also an inspiration to so many, and I know that you will find a way to make it through. I have spoken to several people from our class, and we want you to know that you have all of our love and support and we are here for you, for whatever you may need. Love and many prayers, Ce-Ce,

“ Gerry was one of a kind. You did not have to talk to him long to see he loved aviation. He lived a busy life and valued his family greatly. He spoke of them all often. A few years ago he was working on the plane and I talked to him about his soul. He said preacher, I am not perfect and have made plenty of mistakes, but I love the Lord and know I'm saved. May he enjoy the presence of God. This is not the end of his life, its just a new beginning in a new chapter. You will see him again. We will be remembering his wife, children, and family.,

“ A soul to never forget... It all started the minute I called to talk to his wife, my blessed friend. She wasn't there and he talked with me as if he knew me so well. The minute I spoke to Gerry, I knew he was a wonderful person. I only met him twice, but spoke on the phone with him many times. He always made me laugh. I often think how much we really take for granted when we meet a new friend. He is "watching" over us in his heavenly plane now, only using angel's wings this time. My sincere love, prayers, and sympathy go to his wife, Lisa, and children.,
