“ My Aunt G was a good woman, and I wish I had been there with her more than before. I feel bad for my Uncle Jeff since he'll be alone, except for him and Aunt G's dogs. Missin' ya, Aunt Glenda. Be careful up there.

“ I am also among the six with Glenda from the Byram Class of 64 who shared twelve years as classmates. I remember a lot of good times spent with Glenda. We often answered a teacher together, not sure if the name called was Glenda or Brenda. I think I crashed her bike one day after school with the common scraped knee as a result. She was a smart and sweet friend. Sympathy to Jeff, Ann and family. Brenda Battle Basso

“ Glenda and I were two of six who went 1st thru 12th grade at Byram. There are so many wonderful memories of us growing up together. One of the memories I have is that she was always dressed so neat. Her mom worked at a cleaners and thus her clothes never had a wrinkle. In fact I always thought she might be uncomfortable because her collars were stiff with starch. My heart goes out to Jeff and their family and her sister Ann. I will cherish the memories of her.
