“ Mikell was my friend for many years and I am very sorry that she has died so young. I knew her as a competent and conscientious lawyer, especially in the field of criminal law, in which she had worked both as a defense attorney and as a prosecutor. She also served as an investigator for the Mississippi Commission on Judicial Performance. In all my dealings with her she was scrupulously ethical and reasonable. Mikell was a credit to the legal profession as well as a valued and faithful friend to many people. I am glad to have known her and I deeply regret her passing.
