Mr. Conn, a native of Crystal Springs, was also a life-long member of First Baptist Church. He graduated from high school in 1942 from Crystal Springs Consolidated School. He was also a Civil Engineering graduate of Mississippi State University, where he lettered in track and cross-country. His college education was interrupted by being drafted during World War II into the Navy, where he served aboard the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Yorktown. When the war ended, he continued his service in the Naval Reserves in Jackson, MS, for 20 years, retiring as a Lt. Colonel.

After the war, he returned to Mississippi State University to finish his degree and met the love of his life, Mary Ouida Allen of Jackson, MS. Upon graduation, he moved back to Crystal Springs, MS, where he worked for the Highway Department in Jackson. In September of 1953, he went to work for Knowles Material Company and eventually owned it for the rest of his life.

As an active member of First Baptist Church of Crystal Springs, he loved serving as a Sunday School teacher and a Deacon. As a founding member of Copiah Academy, he served as President of the Board and in many other capacities.

While he had a deep love for his community and for service, he loved his work, but his love for his family was paramount.

James Conn had an enormous, positive impact on my life and on the lives of everyone in my family, especially my son Matt, who worked for him after finishing college. Mr. Conn convinced Matt that he should go to law school, for which I'll always be grateful.

This man's work ethic was unmatched by anyone I've ever known. Like clockwork, he left home for work before daylight every work day, and that continued until he was well into his nineties.

He was unfailingly faithful to his church in terms of his regular attendance and his unselfish service. He supported our church and its ministries with consistent, generous financial giving. His dear wife, Mary Ouida, likewise was faithful in Christian service, especially in our church's ministry to children.

I am thankful to have had Mr. Conn as a close friend from whom I learned many valuable lessons about Christian living, family, perseverance, and the importance of showing up, day after day.
