“ Russ, Stephen, Susan and family...I am so sorry for the pain and shock you all are feeling. It's just so hard to wrap my head around it that I cannot fathom what you are going through. I had not seen Ronnie in what seems a thousand years. When y'all lived out in the old house off Pearl Valley and I would come visit, Ronnie would light up telling me all about his latest hunts and trophies. The woods was definitely his favorite place to be. The other thing he talked about was you boys. Never doubt you were loved by your dad, cherish all the good memories you have and know he lives on through you both. Hugs, love and prayers for your heart's healing.
