“ Sonny is my first cousin and I have so many wonderful memories of our growing up. I always came to The Grove in the summer. I loved his infectious laugh. He and my Daddy, Uncle Charlie, loved to play tricks on each other, play washers beside Aunt Pete's house (Sonny's Mom, never knew where the Pete came from) and playing dominoes and Rook. Man that got boisterous. Our years and miles kept us from seeing very much of each other in our adult years. For that, I am sad. I'm so thankful though that I'll get to see Sonny again in the hereafter. God received an angel.
