“ While I have many fond memories of Jan, one in particular stands out. I was in Las Vegas on business. Jerry and Jan picked me up at my hotel and whisked me to Sam’s Town for dinner. We hit the buffet, which featured crawfish. While I can’t say I was particularly fond of mud puppies, I will always remember the fun we had as Jan tried to show me how to pull the little buggers apart and pull out the meat. We laughed heartily throughout dinner and I had a great time. Thank you, Jan, for being a true friend and a loving part of our family. We love you. I Hope they have crayfish in Heaven.
