

Janice Caruso Volpe

March 9, 1942 - May 7, 2023

Janice Caruso Volpe, 81, passed away May 7, 2023. Janice will be laid to rest at a private ceremony on Monday, 15 May, 2023 at St Bernard Memorial Gardens in Chalmette, LA. Stringer Family Funeral Home in Hazlehurst & St Bernard Funeral Home handled arrangements.

Janice Caruso Volpe dedicated her life in service to her country and her family. Janice worked for the Department of Defense for over 15 years as a civilian employee, dedicated to the protection of our Nation. She was just as fiercely dedicated to her family, raising four children with her husband, Paul. Janice was an avid hunter, who enjoyed sharing the hunt with others as much as she loved to hunt herself. Janice married her high school sweetheart, Paul, and remained happily married for over 63 years. Janice and Paul lived their marriage as best friends, partners in all things until the day she passed. Janice never backed down from a good conversation, a hard argument, or a friendly poker game. She was a loyal friend, a revered mother and wife, and had a life force that will be remembered by all.

She was preceded in death by son, Bryan Joseph Volpe; brother, Ronald Caruso; and sister, Beverly Caruso LaCorgner.

She is survived by her husband, Paul Salvador Volpe, Sr.; sons, Paul Salvador Volpe, Jr. (Diane) of Lacombe, LA, and Jeffrey David Volpe (Nicole) of Saint Amant, LA; daughter, Wendy Volpe Parker (Gregory) of Wesson, MS; brother, Miton Caruso of Saint Amant, LA; grandchildren, Paul Salvador Volpe, III, Ashlynn Volpe Mahoney, Megan Charpio Jones, Brandon Volpe, Gregory Parker, II, Eva Parker Dixon, Taylor Robino, and Charlie Robino; and great grandchildren, Michael Anthony Mosley, Jr., Paul S. Volpe IV, Savannah Jones, Shaun Jones, III, Aniya Jackson, Oakley Moreau, Piper Dixon, and Kate Rose Mahoney.

Tribute Wall

“ Beautiful Dreams was purchased for the family of Janice Caruso Volpe.

---

May 10, 2023 at 05:50 PM

“ One of the sweetest ladies I ever met. I am without a doubt will be missed Billy and Linda Barlow

---

Billy and Linda Barlow - May 09, 2023 at 06:30 PM