“ *Just remembering Jean a year after her passing. What a wonderful life she had with Lynn & the boys. We always enjoyed visiting her & Lynn in their later years & had some good times to remember even today. Our thoughts & love are still with all their family.

“ I missed speaking to several of you at the cemetery but did want you to know how very sorry I was to hear of Mrs. Lingle's death. She adored her boys and their families, and I enjoyed hearing updates on the grands and great grands as well. Walks up and down Whittington Lane, visiting in the swing or on the front porch, phone chats, sharing desserts and flowers - all were just a few of the pleasant memories of a wonderful neighbor of 38 years and friend. I still miss her.

“ What a sweet, dear lady that I was privileged to have as a sister-in-law. Larry and I shared so many wonderful weekends with Lynn and Jean. Larry and Jean played golf and Lynn and I cooked. I am so grateful for all the memories I have and I certainly will miss her. And to her loving family, may God grant you peace and comfort in knowing that today she is enjoying a joyful reunion in heaven that even surpasses all those wonderful Christmases we shared for so many years.
