“ Jeffrey, you have left such an imprint on my life and heart, this devastating news hit me like a ton of bricks collapsing in on my chest. It hurts me more than I ever thought it could, it's been almost 10 years since I've seen you but I have thousands of memories that have been playing over and over for the past few days. It may have only been one short year that our lives met but that was one of the fullest, most real time of my life, we were so young and you taught me so much about life and love, I didn't know it at the time but looking back you had such an influence on my life, if our lives hadn't met I would not be the same person I am today and I thank you for that. There is a big hole in my heart right now that I know will be slow to heal, you've always had a very special place in my heart Jeffrey and a little piece of it goes with you. You will always live in my heart and memories and I will cherish them forever. Thank you for all you've done for me, the world is a darker place without you love. Xoxo Natalie,

“ I'm so sorry we never got to say goodbye, but it was awesome getting to know you again after all this time. I will always remember your cheeky smile as a baby that stayed with you right into adulthood. Rest easy now Jeffrey, no more suffering love. Take that smile to heaven and light up the sky. Lots of love always Auntie Tracey, Uncle Tone and family xxx,
