“ *As my first employer at his grocery store, Mr. Hickman always greeted me with kind words and a gentle smile. I credit him with teaching me the basics for future jobs: show up on time, make every effort to independently solve problems, prioritize needs, and be a supportive team member! “ Lynn and Maxine were my first bosses at my first job at Hickman's Grocery. They both influenced me in many positive ways, not the least in the love they shared with his grandkids and great grandkids. Lynn will be deeply missed. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.

I've lived across the street from the Hickman's for 25 years. They have treated me like one of their own children. I couldn't have asked for better neighbors or friends. Lynn will be deeply missed.

Mr. Hickman was always a man of great character, very honest and accommodating. I remember many times as a young boy him selling me a few shotgun shell out of a box for a minimal price when I couldn't afford a full box. I had great respect for him and learn a lot from him just through observation as how he conducted himself. I will pray for the family. Mr. Hickman will be missed but not forgotten.
