

Joyce Bankhead Stricklin

May 7, 1939 - March 29, 2024

Joyce Bankhead Stricklin, beloved mother, friend, and longtime resident of Crystal Springs, Mississippi, passed away in the early morning hours of March 29, 2024. She was 84 years old. Ms. Stricklin is survived by two children, Cindy Pramuk (husband, Al, both of Franklin, TN), and Ken McManus (Crystal Springs). She is also survived by her sister, Jeanette (husband, George, both of Crystal Springs), step-children Shelley Wierick (husband, John, both of Carlsbad, CA) and Scott Stricklin (fiancé, Traci Gatewood, both of Madison, MS); nephew, Wolf Tolbert (Jackson, MS); eight grandchildren (Jennifer Pramuk, Alan Pramuk, James McManus, Jason McManus, Rachel Wierick, Mason Wierick, and Shelby Stricklin; Justin McManus, deceased), and too many friends and “family” (friends as close as family) to count. Her husband of 33 years, Basil Stricklin, passed away in 2019.

Ms. Stricklin was the first of two daughters born to Earlene and Kenneth Bankhead. She attended Crystal Springs High School where she met her first husband, James McManus, with whom she had three children, one of whom (David McManus) predeceased Ms. Stricklin. The couple subsequently divorced, and several years later, Joyce met and married the “love of her life,” Basil Stricklin. The Stricklins settled in Crystal Springs where they savored life together in the company of friends and family.

Joyce was fiercely devoted to her community of friends, including Shirley

Lamar (Crystal Springs), who was with Ms. Stricklin the night of her passing. Inseparable since grade school, especially after losing both their husbands, the two frequently traveled together and enjoyed life to the fullest, earning nicknames “Wine” and “Dine” from close friends. “We all knew them as ‘the pretty ladies,’” remembered a local resident and family friend, who added the pair were likely to wear mink coats and full makeup to the gym. But Ms. Stricklin’s joie de vivre was equally matched by her tenderness toward others, spending countless Sunday afternoons visiting friends and delivering home-baked pies and cakes to people in difficult circumstances.

In addition to her decade-long career with Browning-Ferris Industries, Ms. Stricklin also partnered with her husband, Basil, in brokering residential real estate and regional land transactions. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Crystal Springs, active in the local garden club and Junior Auxiliary, and deeply involved in the activities of her children and their friends. She was also a gifted interior decorator and brightened many homes in central Mississippi with her distinctive southern style and fashion.

Known throughout her community as a beacon of love and kindness, Joyce will forever be remembered not just for the joy with which she conducted her own life, but also for the joy and light she brought to others.

A celebration of Ms. Stricklin’s life will be held Saturday, May 4, 2:00 p.m., at the Stringer Family Funeral Home in Crystal Springs, with interment following at Crystal Springs Memorial Cemetery. Visitation will take place prior to the service at the funeral home, beginning at 12:00 p.m.
