

Julia Richardson

July 3, 1919 - July 13, 2015

Julia Ancaroni Richardson died July 13, 2015. Mrs. Richardson was 96 years old and died peacefully in her own bed, in the home she was born in. Visitation will be 6:30pm-8pm Thursday at Stringer Family Funeral Home in Hazlehurst. Services will be 10:30am Friday at St. Martin's Catholic Church with burial at Hazlehurst Cemetery.

She attended Hazlehurst City Schools and Draugns business school in Jackson, MS, and worked for the Farmers Home Administration in Greenville, where she met her husband of 44 years, H.P. Richardson. After their marriage she traveled widely with Rich, an internal auditor with the USDA. After her son's birth, they returned to her family home in Hazlehurst where they lived until retirement.

Mrs. Richardson was a devoted wife, mother and caregiver to her parents, brother and husband before their deaths. Mrs. Richardson was well traveled, loved all things Italian and for a short time lived in her parent's hometown of Faenza, Italy. She was fluent in the Italian language and loved to cook Italian for her family.

Mrs. Richardson was a lifelong communicant of St Martin's Catholic Church in Hazlehurst. She was devoted to her church throughout the years, helping with any project necessary.

She was preceded in death by her husband H.P. Richardson, parents John Battista and Rosa Ancaroni, her brothers Dr. Geno Ancaroni and Luicio Ancaroni, sisters Irene Corra and Janice Ferrari.

She is survived by a son, Hal and his wife Freida of Madison, 2 grandchildren, Robbie and Laura Richardson and nieces Linda Corra, Cheryl Armand and Jean Mordaunt and many great nieces and nephews.

Donations in her memory may be made to St. Martins Catholic Church in Hazlehurst.

Tribute Wall

“ Julia Richardson

---

January 28, 2023 at 04:45 PM

“ *Hal and family,
Sorry to learn of your mother's passing. It has been a long time but I remember her attending many of our school events.
Hope you are doing well.*

Gena Hood

---

Gena - August 07, 2015 at 06:45 PM