

June Brent,

November 19, 1922 - July 30, 2013

June Brent Crystal Springs On Tuesday, July 30th, Mrs. June Garland Brent slipped peacefully into eternity with her loving children and faithful caregivers at her bedside. Visitation will be 9am-11am Friday at Crystal Springs United Methodist Church. Services will be 11am Friday at Crystal Springs United Methodist Church with burial at Crystal Springs Cemetery. Stringer Family Funeral Services in Crystal Springs is handling arrangements. She was preceded in death by her parents Ernest and Jewel Burnam Garland, her husband John M. Brent, Sr., son John M. Brent, Jr., her sister Jerry Garland Lamar, and niece Linda Lamar. She is survived by her sons William Ernest Brent (Suzanne), James Garland Brent (Kay) and Robert Stephen Brent (Nancy); also by her sister, Nell Garland Thomas, six grandchildren, and five great grandchildren; a daughter-in-law, Kay Brent Hennington and a host of nieces and nephews. June was a member of Crystal Springs United Methodist Church for 79 years. During these years she was active in the United Methodist Women, taught Sunday school, and in later years loved participating in the Wednesday night meal service. One of her greatest pleasures was providing homemade Angel food cakes for the homebound and making jello for the children. In her youth she was the first Crystal Springs Tomato Queen in 1938. As years went by, she always enjoyed participating in the Crystal Springs Tomato Festival. Riding in the parades and crowning the new queens was always a joy for her. She and her husband were charter members of Rolling Hills Country Club where she was an avid golfer and long time member of the ladies golf association. She won the ladies club championship numerous times and was always eager to share her knowledge of the game that she so enjoyed. She will be greatly missed by her family, friends and her caregivers, Louise Burton and Mary Ann Terry. Memorials may be made to the Crystal Springs United Methodist Church building fund or American Cancer Society., “ Ms June was a great inspiration to me! We had very spiritual talks. Now she's singing with the angels!,

Ethel Kees - April 21, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ I have known June all my life. Johnny and I went to kindergarden together when the Brents lived across from us on Lee Avenue. I'm afraid Johnny and I may have been a bit of a bother to her in our youthful excesses. But, she always forgave us. A fine and gracious lady. She shall be greatly missed.,

“ God bless such a divine lady and a true "Southern Bell" she was nice to everyone.,
