

Katherine Layton

September 16, 1934 - March 25, 2023

Eva Katherine Layton lovingly known by many as mother, maw, mawmaw, Kat and Ms. Katherine exited her earthly home and entered the gates of heaven on Saturday March 25, 2023, Visitation will be Tuesday, March 28, 2023 at Georgetown Baptist Church from 10am until 11am when the service begins. Burial will follow at the Georgetown Cemetery.

Katherine is preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stafford; brother, Bob Stafford; former husband, John R. Sullivan, Sr.; late husband, Curtis Layton; son, James A. Sullivan; grandsons, Boyd Sullivan and Scott Sullivan.

Katherine is survived by her daughter, Betty Blaylock (Travis); son, John Robert Sullivan; step daughter, Lori Miksa; grandchildren, Crystal (David) and Tina; great grandchildren, Molly and Keira.

Katherine's passion in life was being there for her family and friends. She loved with her whole heart and spent her spare time at the Thrift store shopping for others and mentoring those in need. She had an open door and arms policy where she not only covered those she cared for with love but with honesty....if you didn't want to know her honest opinion, you didn't ask.

What a wonderful day it will be when we reach heaven and her loving arms again.

“ We are praying for comfort and peace for everyone. Although I never met Mrs. Katherine, she loved me and I loved her through my friendship with Crystal. I think about her kindness and generosity every time I wear the shoes and shell jewelry she gave me from her thrift store finds. Her memory and love lives on and one day I will see her in heaven. She passed that same sweet, giving spirit on to Crystal and I am thankful for that. Love, Ginger and Tony
