

Kay Beasley Estes

June 15, 1944 - May 23, 2026

Kay Beasley Estes, 81, of Maggie Valley, passed away on Saturday, May 23, 2026, at her home, with her husband, Glen. She was born to the late Carol Way and Oliver Mallard Beasley, Sr. on June 15, 1944, in the Pearl Valley community.

In addition to her parents, Kay is preceded in death by one nephew, Tommy Beasley.

She enjoyed crafting and was especially proficient in quilt making. The Christmas holiday was her absolute favorite, and her home was well known in the neighborhood due to the copious amounts of lights and decorations she and Glenn would put out every year. Kay made and gifted countless ornaments and tree-toppers that will be cherished by her loved ones for many years to come. Her collection of Santa Claus figurines was unmatched and could fill their own museum. She worked as an Office Manager in the Sales Department for Highside Chemicals Corporation, alongside Glen for many years when they lived in Gulfport, MS. They later moved to the mountains of Western North Carolina, where they spent nearly twenty peaceful years together.

Kay is survived by her beloved husband of almost 35 years, Glen Estes; a son, Scott Breeden and his wife, Melita, of New Hebron; a brother, Mallard

Beasley, Jr., of the Pearl Valley community.; a special niece, Tammy Roe (Brad), of Star, and numerous grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to the staff of Four Seasons Hospice for the excellent help in their time of need.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Kay's honor, to Saint Jude Children's Research Hospital at 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105

A graveside memorial service will be 10am on Saturday, June 27, 2026, at Lowe Cemetery on Pearl Valley Road, Copiah County.

Cemetery Details

Lowe Cemetery

Lowe Cemetery Road
Wesson, MS

Upcoming Events

Graveside Service

JUN 27. 10:00 AM (CT)

Lowe Cemetery
Lowe Cemetery Road
Wesson, MS