“ Kennel served as the chief usher at Gallman Baptist Church as well as chief cook and bottle washer for Brotherhood breakfasts monthly. He will be greatly missed. Noone makes me laugh as much as he did--I mean, in church. He did not take up the offering quietly. Thankfully, I, like Sylvia and kennel, sat on the back row--them on the right side, me on the left. His wry and humorous comments were priceless.

I have a wheelchair that allows me to sit as if in a recliner.

Invariably, he would pinch my outstretched foot. I am so glad he shared his rrecipe for the best macaroni and cheese--mine won't be as good as his, but I promise his recipe will be used for the family meal after the funeral.

We console ourselves thinking of him with those grandchildren, but our loss is great. We join his loved ones in being grateful for having known him.
