“ I will always remember her kind serene spirit. She was the perfect example of a devoted Christian wife and mother. I will miss her at the Clower-Cottingham reunion next year. My sympathies are with her children and other family members.

“ Miss Lavera was a great example of a loyal wife, mother and most of all a true Christian lady. When I come "home" to CS, i always enjoyed a cup of coffee and a wonderful visit with this sweet lady. She was the sister to our Aunt Addie Clower. She would attend the Clower/Cottingham reunion in June and share so many memories of our family. I know Mr. Henry and her family welcomed her with open arms. We will miss her but know that we will rejoice with her someday in the sweet bye and bye. Rest in God's arms our sweet friend.

“ My Mother’s only surviving sibling and her baby sister. We shared the same birthday, August 25 th! After my Mother’s death, I would call Aunt Lavera, if I was longing to talk to my Mother. We would talk for hours! I know she is rejoicing with her family and Uncle Henry, so for her I am happy!!! I’m gonna miss our talks and can’t attend your service on Monday, because Roy is so sick. Love and prayers for all our family!!! Shirley White Garrett

I never met this precious lady but attend church with her beautiful daughter, Patricia here in Owensboro, Ky. Sending love and condolences to Patricia and her family there in MS. Such a comfort to know you will meet once again when you reach Heaven.
Make God Bless and comfort all of you.
