

Lorraine Stringer,

April 7, 1930 - October 18, 2012

Lorraine Barlow Stringer died peacefully at Cumming Manor Assisted Living in Cumming, GA on Thursday evening, October 18, 2012. Memorial and graveside services will be held Tuesday, October 30 at 2:00 pm at Rehobeth Church and Cemetery in Barlow with Rev. Michael Assink officiating. Lorraine will be laid to rest between her son, Alan Stringer, who died in 1993, and her husband, Bill Stringer, who died in 2010. Mrs. Stringer was born on April 7, 1930 in Tallulah, LA, grew up in Barlow, MS and attended Hazlehurst High School. She married Bill Stringer in Jackson in 1950. She and Bill moved many times while Bill worked for Nabisco for over 40 years and they raised 2 children, Trudy and Alan. Bill and Lorraine moved back to Barlow from Decatur, GA when Bill retired 22 years ago. Lorraine was active in the Barlow community, Rehobeth Church, and in the Barlow Volunteer Fire Dept. She moved to Cumming Manor in March, 2010 to be near her daughter. Mrs. Stringer was preceded in death by her parents, Mack Barlow and Gertrude Smith Barlow, by her son, William Alan Stringer, by her sister, Patsy Barlow McCardle, and by her husband, William N. Stringer. Survivors include her daughter, Trudy Stringer Reeves, currently residing in Cumming, GA, her sister, Maxine Barlow McCardle of Hazlehurst, her grandson, Charles William Reeves, Jr., currently residing in Long Island City, NY, and many nieces, nephews and cousins.
