“ IM GLAD YOUR LIFE TOUCHED MINE

*Im glad our lives have touched
If just this little while
I'm thankful for each word of love
Each warm and friendly smile.
You brought such gladness to my heart
The sunshine to my day and just because we two have met Ive known a brighter way.*

*Im very glad and yet i know
It cant always be
There comes a time when friends must part
Though close as you and me.
Life sends us on another road
And distance hurts our hearts
Because its hard to realize That even friends must part.*

*Yet im glad our lives have touched
And that we have come to meet Im glad for every dream we shared the bitter and the sweet.
And years can not erase the joy
the happiness sublime
Dear friend, please know within my heart
Im glad your life touched mine.*

Jim
Thornhill

“ I remember his "This and That" segment when he did the morning show on WMDC, when I was at HHS, I listened on the way to school everyday. In 1973 my first radio job was working the night shift at WMDC. I enjoyed working with Mal and learned a lot from him; he will be missed.

“ Mr. Mal was my neighbor for as long as I've been alive. Over the past couple of years I really got to know him well. I enjoyed our talks sitting out on his porch or carport, talking about our favorite restaurants, music and movies. To his adventures while in service and stories of being in the war. I would talk to him about my family and school life. He would talk about his daughter and how she was when she was my age. He was a special friend of mine and I will cherish his memory in my heart for the rest of my life. Mr. Mal had a great personality. He was a gentleman, so sweet and kind. But, he wasn't afraid to speak his mind. Rest In Peace Mal Jones you will be forever missed.

“ Male was definitely a celebrity throughout his adult life in Hazlehurst. His voice was the quickest identifiable voice ever. I have so many memories of now it's hard to even pick out one in particular. So I send my heartfelt sympathy and condolences to the family and friends of now. It's a wonderful thing to see that he had such a long and fruitful life. I send my heartfelt sympathies again and fond memories and affections for mail and CC and all the family
