“ The first day I met Mrs. Martha, I asked to sit at the table where she sat at lunch. She told me I could unless one of her daughters came and then I'd have to move. Little did I know that it wouldn't be long before I considered you myself her 4th daughter. She was an amazing lady and I'm honored to have known her. She was my movie watching buddy and I treasure her memory!!

“ Terry, Becky and Lilli

My deepest condolences at the loss of your mom. I remember her as very outgoing and friendly, attributes I'll bet she carried to the end. Y'all were lucky to have her - and Paul - as your parents. Cherish her memory.
