“ I send my sincere sympathy to Mary Ann's family. She was a delightful lady who was very good at making the people around her happy. When I was a very young lawyer in the 1960s I met her at the Henley law firm in Hazlehurst, where she was a top-notch legal secretary. Today, with her skill set, she would be called a paralegal. Often I would see her in the Chancery Clerk's record room, checking land titles. That's something they don't teach in law school. Mary Ann patiently taught me a lot about that process. She was a kind, sweet Christian lady, and I'm very thankful I had the privilege of being her friend.
