“ My mom, Dean Dennis, and myself, Dede Dennis loved Mary Nell. My mom has been gone since March 99, but I have thought about Mary Nell over the years and tried to find her to visit with her, but wasn't sure how to locate her. I just happened to see her funeral information after the fact this week while checking for someone else's. Wish I could have visited with her. I'm sorry for your loss. She was a wonderful person. I have not seen her since I was a child but always loved to go with my mom to see her. She was with me when I got my ears pierced for the first time at 9 years old. I have fond memories of visiting with her. Loved her.
