

Mary Eugenia Martin Purvis

July 22, 2016

Mary Eugenia Martin Purvis, 95, a life-long resident of Crystal Springs, died Friday, July 22, 2016, at Pinehurst Nursing Home in Hazlehurst, MS.

Mrs. Purvis was a graduate of Crystal Springs Consolidated School and Mississippi State College for Women. She spent the majority of her career teaching home economics at Crystal Springs High School. Upon retirement, Mrs. Purvis joined her husband at the family business, Grayson's Feed, Seed & Grocery Store. Both Mr. and Mrs. Purvis spent their lifetime worshipping at First Baptist Church of Crystal Springs where they were members.

Mrs. Purvis is preceded in death by her husband, Grayson Purvis, and her parents, H.E. and Minnie Lee Martin. She is survived by her brothers, Henry Frank Martin of Madison, MS, and Harold L. Martin of Kosciusko, MS, along with several nieces and nephews. Additionally, she leaves behind life-long family friend and caregiver, Kenneth Ray Powell.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, July 25, at First Baptist Church Crystal Springs with burial in Crystal Springs Cemetery. A time of visitation will be held beginning at 12 p.m. prior to the service at the church. Stringer Family Funeral Services of Crystal Springs is handling arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Mary Eugenia Martin Purvis

---

January 28, 2023 at 04:45 PM

“ i remember ms purvis and her husband well. she talk my home economics and how to sew. so sorry for your loss. keeping you in my prayers

---

Florria Carrell - July 25, 2016 at 11:06 PM

“ I can still see Ms. Mary and Mr. Grayson walking around in the store seeing all their customers found what they needed. Sweet couple!

---

Cindy Howard - July 24, 2016 at 06:10 PM