“ Visitation was so bittersweet last night, as a Mother of three sons, I can not even imagine the pain being felt by Pat and Kelly. It seems like only yesterday all the boys were in high school and getting into trouble, skipping school and getting caught, those memories, good and bad are what will sustain us all at this time. Michael, I know you are hurting so bad now, as are the rest of your family, but please be strong for your Mom. It is just not natural that a child should go before you. I love you all and will see you in a few days. Sara, if you ever just need to talk and find a quite place you know you are always welcome.,

“ To Pat, Michael, Kelly and all family, know each and everyone of you are being brought up in my prayers. Though we do not always understand why things go the way they do in our lives and think we cannot bear some, know the good Lord will always see us through. It is said "out of all things bad, comes good". We may not see this now, but I know, in Matt's case, some good has to come from it. Love each and every one of you and praying for you daily.,
