“ Joie, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your children. Trying to find the new "normal" and going on with life is a difficult road to have to travel, but God does give us strength for each day. I'm continuing to lift you up in prayer in the days ahead.,

“ Joie - My heart breaks for you and your children over the loss of Michele. Please know that I am praying for you for God to provide comfort - something I know may be hard to see and even harder for us to come up with on our own. Please let me know if there is any way I can help you.,

“ Joie - I am sitting here, with tears in my eyes, not believing what I have just heard. You and Michele are two of the nicest, kindest people I have ever been fortunate to know. I look back and recall how beautiful and thoughtful and genuinely good-hearted Michele was, and I just can't believe it. When someone like Michele is taken away so early, it just makes me shake my head and cry. I feel so badly for you and your family. I can tell you I've been privileged to know you and Michele, but that's really no consolation. I just feel terrible for you as I type through my tears.,
