Wow! You haven't checked on your mother in 25 plus years! Not a card or a telephone call. Nothing. No visits to the nursing home. How dare you even comment on her death. My parents did everything for her. You are not welcome at her funeral.

How dare you disrespect my mother-in-law like that — someone you didn't even know. Let's be honest: Mildred abandoned her four children and all of her grandchildren. Her kids and grandkids lived just a town over, and she's the one who left them. What kind of mother goes years without seeing or speaking to her own kids or grandkids? Ever wonder why none of her children had anything to do with her?

And let's be clear about something else — Jerri is a great person. She goes out of her way for anyone and would give the shirt off her back. You clearly don't know her at all.

God rest Mildred's soul, but the good Lord knows who was in the wrong. Stay in your own lane and don't speak on things you know nothing about. And believe me — not one of them cared to show up to her funeral, so you're not hurting anyone's feelings. You have no right to tell her own children what they can and can't do.

If you would like the truth you can always contact Jerri and find out for yourself but you will not disrespect her! treysmom91@gmail.com

Her kids did not know she was in a nursing home or anything about her health. No one tried to contact us.
