“ To Diane Harris: I am sorry about the loss of your mother. She died on my Mother's very birthday. I am not sorry to have to say to you that you had no right, not even legally, to include my son's name in the obit. Have you lost your mind? Jamie legally left your family 34 years ago, and should not have been put on any list of left-behinds. This faux paus was in the worst taste I have ever seen, and you owe me any apology.,
