“ I was so glad that your mom and dad brought you children to visit the last time to see that you guys were growing into wonderful people. When you don't get to see loved ones very often it is amazing to see the growth in them from one visit to the next. There are no words to express my feelings over the loss of such a young man.....thinking, missing, loving.....for eternity....Aunt Diane and Uncle Larry and Jodie and Teresa.

“ I didn't know Nick personally, but he never failed to make everyone laugh. He always told the funniest jokes and hardly ever didn't have a smile on his face at school. My heart goes out to his family.

“ Nick was my little cousin and he was a special and very very talented young man. I don't think there was not one person he came across Nick that he didn't like or didn't like Nick.... He loved everyone he came across. He was a great awesome kid that was and was going to do great big awesome amazing thing's in this world and it got cut short over like Aunt Pam said stupid people speeding and drinking. My son Blatien and my nephew Tay-Tay really loved Nick alot. Everyone in this world loved Nick. It's taking a toll on my whole family's especially Aunt Pam Uncle Jake and 2 cousins Hannah and Angel. Nick was my brother Matt's road dog everywhere Matt went Nick was right there. I could say so much more about Nick but it would take me all year long to do so.
