Dear Pegi...In 1971 I had orders to the coral sea and arrived in Hunters Point Calif....I was 17 and the first person I met was Paul. He was a much older than me...at least 21 cause he could buy BEER!!!!...Paul was a great guy...he was always a guy that would help out his fellow shipmate.....but not to a point that it would interfere with liberty call!!!! The years have passed too fast...its hard to understand it all but no one stops father time. I just want you to know Paul was a good guy and surly will be missed. Dale Smith

Peggy, I'll never forget when Paul & I were flown off the ship in April, 1972 to Da Nang cause we were coming home for good. Paul was a very good friend and I will miss him dearly. I was very glad to have met you, Brandon & Ashlea. Daniel Saucedo "Sauce"
