

Paulette Holder Bishop

November 9, 1944 - December 8, 2021

Paulette Holder Bishop passed away December 8, 2021. Visitation will be 5pm-8pm Sunday and 1pm-2pm Monday at Stringer Family Funeral Home in Crystal Springs. Service will be at 2pm Monday at Stringer Family Chapel with burial at Hazlehurst Cemetery. Stringer Family Funeral Home in Crystal Springs is handling arrangements.

Paulette had a zeal and zest for life, her smile would light up any room. That zeal and zest was seen growing up in many outlets, particularly in beauty pageants, where her beauty and charm made her a top contender and winner. The world of pageantry led Paulette to pursue a license in cosmetology, which was a natural gift for her, and she found success in owning her own salon.

Paulette was a high school drum major as well, which was when she fell in love with music and pursued being a booking agent for bands in her young adult hood. But her most loved role in life was a mother of three beautiful children: Lisa, Rob, and Polly. Polly preceded her in death, and she has now joyfully joined her daughter in the Lord's presence. She was called by many of her biological children's friends "mama" because she would care for those friends as deeply as she cared for the children she birthed.

Paulette had a sweet and caring disposition to anyone she met. Many times, she would accept the role of caretaker to those who's challenges were physical. What superseded the physical care she gave was her empathetic heart; she would be willing to sit and listen to others as they poured their heart out over their life's challenges. Those that shared found a person who would listen intently, without judgement, and show love. Paulette never changed that trait about herself even when she was faced with what some would see as insurmountable pain and challenge in her own life. She just loved people. Even in the last of her days, when she was no longer very mobile, she would communicate through social media and still be that same empathetic person in written form.

Paulette's favorite holiday was Christmas, although we know she struggled leaving Lisa and Rob this holiday we also know she is rejoicing with a healed body and the family she missed. She is now resting in the presence of her Lord and Savior, and with those that went before her and in that we can all find peace and joy.

Paulette is survived by her daughter, Lisa Berry (Jonathan); son, Rob Bishop; and two grandchildren, Ethan and Dylan Berry
