“ I am the Bookkeeper for the American Legion Post 67 in Canton and I have been trying to locate Ray for several months. Ray was a lifetime member of the legion so he didn't make routine contact every year. After the pandemic hit I started trying to contact all our lifetime members to make sure they were ok. I'm very sorry to hear that Ray has passed and we Legionnaires at the post will miss him very much. He was a heck of a fisherman and we will all miss his great catches and " Fishing Tales" about the big ones that got away. I regret missing the funeral but please know that our condolences and Blessings go with the Andrews family.

“ My condolences to the Andrews family. I did not know Mr. Andrews but heard so many stories over the years from Michelle. It was clear that he loved his family very much and always put them first. I hope you find peace in the coming days.
