

Rebecca Barlow Jackson

August 9, 1939 - August 23, 2025

Mrs. Rebecca Barlow Jackson peacefully passed away on August 23, 2025, in Greenville, South Carolina at the age of 86.

She was born on August 9, 1939 to Rebecca Jasper Barlow and Leon Percy Barlow, Sr. in Hazlehurst, Mississippi. She lived most of her life in Hazlehurst and Jacksonville, Florida. In 2009 she and her husband moved to Greenville, South Carolina, to be near their daughter and son-in-law.

A 1957 graduate of Hazlehurst High School, Rebecca went on to earn degrees from Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and the University of Southern Mississippi, where she was a member of Kappa Delta Sorority and was a Top 10 Beauty. She met her husband of 63 years, John, at Co-Lin, where they were both cheerleaders.

During her lifelong career as a secretary, she supported various executives in both Mississippi and Florida. She spent the last 20 years of her working life as Corporate Secretary to Baptist Health System in Jacksonville, FL, where she was responsible for the organization of over 30 Boards of Directors.

Rebecca cherished her memories of travel throughout the years around the United States and Europe. She loved beautiful music and sang in the church choirs at First Baptist Church Hazlehurst and Hendricks Avenue Baptist Church in Jacksonville. She had a way of adding a special touch to gifts, events, decorations, and homes that made them beautiful. Rebecca had an artistic talent that she explored through painting, drawing, needlework, and various other art forms. She was most proud of her three grandchildren and their accomplishments. Rebecca was full of grace and beauty, a true southern lady.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her son, John Carter Jackson; and her sister, Rachel Barlow Goodson.

She is survived by her husband, John; daughter, Rebecca Jackson Feldman (Bryan) of Greenville, South Carolina; daughter in law, Pamela Crump Jackson of Southaven, Mississippi; grandchildren, Benjamin Carter Jackson, Jackson Reid Feldman, and Rebecca Caroline Feldman; and brother, Leon P. Barlow Jr. (Rachel).
